Supervisor Biddle Cheers on Local Youth

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Eyon Biddle, Sr. gave a resounding approbation for youth community day of action events he attended Thursday. Supervisor Biddle was on hand to attend a noon news conference led by the Milwaukee Youth Council and featured the youth group Be the Change.

“These youth only proved what I have been saying all along. There are many positive young people who are doing great things in this city,” said Supervisor Biddle.

Supervisor Biddle was also able to stop by the North Division High School Fieldhouse where hundreds of young people from organizations such as the Boys & Girls Club, Campaign against Violence, and Be the Change participated in the Milwaukee Bronzeville Renaissance Festival and Unity Walk to Northcott Neighborhood House.

Lastly, Supervisor Biddle attended a Youth Led Community Forum put on by Team Stop the Violence. The forum was held at St. Mark AME Church and allowed people to weigh in on recent community issues and the incident at the Wisconsin State Fair.

A wide variety of individuals from various backgrounds and multitudinous walks of life were in attendance to support the youth, however Supervisor Biddle couldn't help but notice the absence of two other fellow elected officials Aldermen Donovan and Dudzik.

“What I saw Thursday was numerous positive, vibrant, beautiful young African-American children who are looking to make a difference in the city that they love, not the ‘deteriorating African-American culture’ that some believe they are a part of,” said Supervisor Biddle. “I think those that use pointless rhetoric and blanket statements about our young people should go to these types of events to see the whole picture so they can understand just how disrespectful, divisive and off-base their words are.”
